Room Tupu:

Last week was a busy one for Room Tupu. There was lots of new learning happening. As part of our topic study the students are learning about different sea animals and their environments. Last week they learnt about the New Zealand Sea Lion, this week they are learning about the Maui Dolphin. The students are really enjoying this new learning, this is shown through their engagement and enthusiasm in their mahi. Keep up the good work.

A short reminder that Room Tupu students have a small amount of homework to do each night. Mrs Davidson's students have reading and learning of alphabet sounds. Whaea Jo's students have reading and spelling tasks to complete.

Puawai:

Welcome to Week 2. Last week was an eventful week. A big thank you to the students in Puawai who spoke to Whaea Esther and Whaea Zoe about their learning. Talking to strangers is difficult enough but speaking about one's learning is even more so.

This Tuesday Naphtali is heading to Auckland to National Young Leader's Day on Wednesday. The speakers for the day are: Ronnie Taulafo (What Now), KINGS (Singer), Dr Lehan Stemmet (Researcher, Reaching Your Full Potential), Hana Tapiata (Blogger, Identity), and Christian Gallen (Presenter). We hope Naphtali has a fantastic time and will share the day with us.

The Student Council met last Friday. They are finalising the events they have decided for the term, they will share this in next week's newsletter.
