Ruma Tupu:

Tupu Tuakana writing at present is based around writing instructions. They are enjoying use of bossy verbs such as put, look, take, mix, that we find in instruction writing, and words that explain 'when' like first, then, finally... Have them read a recipe out for you at home: What ingredients are needed? What do you do first? What next? Look for bossy recipe verbs!

Puawai:

Last Friday the year 7 & 8s attended Technology at Tautoro School. They all came back saying how much of a great time they had. Presently we are still planning our imaginative narratives and are expecting them to be complete by week 5, keep a lookout for these. The students are working hard on their Short Story reading having nearly completed their first presentation. They are also working hard on their math using Google Sheets to display their data patterns and relationship data.
